20 Ways You Can Help Fight Human Trafficking

After first learning about human trafficking, many people want to help in some way but do not know how. Here are just a few ideas for your consideration.

1. Learn the red flags (http://www.state.gov/j/tip/id/index.htm) that may indicate human trafficking so you can help identify a potential trafficking victim. Human trafficking awareness training is available for individuals, businesses, first responders, law enforcement, and federal employees. (http://www.state.gov/j/tip/training/index.htm)

2. In the U.S. call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center at 1-888-373-7888 (24/7) to get help and connect with a service provider in your area, report a tip with information on potential human trafficking activity; or learn more by requesting training, technical assistance, or resources. (https://traffickingresourcecenter.org/report-trafficking) Call federal law enforcement directly to report suspicious activity and get help from the Department of Homeland Security (https://www.ice.gov/webform/hsi-tip-form) at 1-866-347-2423 (24/7), or submit a tip online at www.ice.gov/tips, from the U.S. Department of Justice at 1-888-428-7581 from 9:00am to 5:00pm (EST). Victims, including undocumented individuals, are eligible for services and immigration assistance.

3. Be a conscientious consumer. Discover your Slavery Footprint (http://www.slaveryfootprint.org), and check out the Department of Labor’s List of Goods Produced by Child Labor or Forced Labor. (http://www.dol.gov/ilab/reports/child-labor/list-of-goods/) Encourage companies, including your own, to take steps to investigate and eliminate slavery and human trafficking in their supply chains and to publish the information for consumer awareness.

4. Incorporate human trafficking information into your professional associations’ conferences, trainings, manuals, and other materials as relevant (See example: http://www.dol.gov/ilab/reports/child-labor/list-of-goods/).

6. Meet with and/or write local, state, and federal government representatives to tell them you care about combating human trafficking in your community, and ask what they are doing to address human trafficking in your area.

8. Volunteer to do victim outreach or offer your professional services to a local anti-trafficking organization.

9. Donate funds or needed items to an anti-trafficking organization in your area.

10. Organize a fundraiser and donate the proceeds to an anti-trafficking organization.

11. Host an awareness event to watch and discuss a recent human trafficking documentary. On a larger scale, host a human trafficking film festival.

12. Encourage your local schools to partner with students and include the issue of modern day slavery in their curriculum (http://www.idh.org/). As a parent, educator, or school administrator, be aware of how traffickers target school-aged children (http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/osdfs/factsheet.pdf).

14. Write a letter to the editor of your local paper about human trafficking in your community.

15. Start or sign a human trafficking petition. (https://www.change.org/petitions)

16. Businesses: Provide internships, job skills training, and/or jobs to trafficking survivors. Consumers: Purchase items made by trafficking survivors such as from Blingzy Jewelry Travel Rolls (http://blingzy.com), Jewel Girls (http://fairgirls.org/shop) or Made by Survivors (http://www.madebysurvivors.com/).

17. Students: Take action on your campus. (http://www.againstourwill.org/) Join or establish a university or secondary school club to raise awareness about human trafficking and initiate action throughout your local community. Consider doing one of your research papers on a topic concerning human trafficking. Professors: Request that human trafficking be an issue included in university curriculum. Increase scholarship about human trafficking by publishing an article, teaching a class, or hosting a symposium.

18. Law Enforcement Officials: Join or start a local human trafficking task force.

19. Mental Health/Medical Providers: Extend low-cost/free services to human trafficking victims helped by anti-trafficking organizations. Train your staff on how to identify the indicators of human trafficking and assist victims.
